March 31

sessions

poet/editor/interdisciplinary artist Sherese Francis to explore questions of indicate which date they prefer

Distance & Displacement: Prose and Poetry Writing Workshop

February 25 and 26

Studies Program. Watch it live on the

for the Webex event. (2:00 pm EST)

oral history interviews and using free tools to record remotely.

here

using free tools to record them remotely.

workshop

more information and past winning entries. Submit your QPL story today!

copies of four Queens-related books. See the month, a lucky contributor will win a prize package of QPL swag and signed patrons' memories of the library and the role it has played in their lives.

Alumni Relations.

College Library and Queens College Office of shifting roles after WWII -- can aid your research.

which reveals interesting trends for women's genealogical research. In both workshops, participants will learn how to get memory is presenting two opportunities to help you make the most of your

Are you interested in discovering more about your family history? Queens or techniques?

March 3:

from a loved one?

February 3:

What are some recipes you have perfected (or made your

What are some of your go-to recipes for parties or

How are some of your recipes that you have feeling, to connect with others in a way to produce and help carry leaving a legacy, a calling for others to respond. During times of grief, what something bigger than oneself? This week, attendees will look at the poetry hauntings that occupy space in the unfamiliar, the seen and unseen, the said and unsaid intersect and live poetic investigation.

Part 1: Poetic Archeology

March 31:

Join Queens Memory Outreach

Memory website

Queens Memory podcast. Full details will be posted on the

QPL Sweepstakes site

Register for any or all three

Healing in Times of Grief

March 10:

Join us each week as we answer the following questions:

What are some recipes you have that were passed down

What are some of your go-to recipes for parties or

What is a recipe you have perfected (or made your

What are some recipes you have that were passed down

From the Archives: Using 1960’s Census Records to

On March 31, join Queens Memory Outreach

Are you interested in discovering more about your family history? Queens

From the Archives: Using 1950’s Census Records to

On February 16, Sharon Wilkins, Deputy

Looking for ways to volunteer and connect with others

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 2, we will be joined by

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 16, Sharon Wilkins, Deputy

Looking for ways to volunteer and connect with others

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 2, we will be joined by

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 16, Sharon Wilkins, Deputy

Looking for ways to volunteer and connect with others

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 2, we will be joined by

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 16, Sharon Wilkins, Deputy

Looking for ways to volunteer and connect with others

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 2, we will be joined by

Uncovering African American Family Histories

On February 2, we will be joined by