Event: Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens

Date: July 21 and 22, 2021

Description:

Join us for a 90-minute creative drawing walk around Queens. Led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe, participants will draw images that reflect their experiences of summer in the city, starting and ending at the Queens Public Library. The tour will explore the local ecology and climate, and offer participants the opportunity to develop new drawings reflecting their bodily experiences of summer in the city. All art materials will be provided.

Additional Information:

The walking tour will begin and end outside Queens Central Library; see the Upcoming Events box below for more details.

Join us for a creative and intuitive walk around Queens. Led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe, participants will draw images that reflect their experiences of summer in the city, starting and ending at the Queens Public Library. The tour will explore the local ecology and climate, and offer participants the opportunity to develop new drawings reflecting their bodily experiences of summer in the city. All art materials will be provided.

Cost:

The walking tour is free and open to all, limited to 10 participants per session. Registration is required; see article above for more details about the registration process.

Contact Information:

For more information, visit the event page or contact the Queens Public Library at 718-241-7000.

Upcoming Events:

- Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens
  - July 21 and 22, 2021
  - Location: Queens Public Library
  - Cost: Free; registration required
  - Description: A creative and intuitive walk around Queens led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe.

- Queens Memory Cookbook: Building Community Through Personal Archives
  - July 26-29, 2021
  - Location: American Folk Art Museum
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A project that explores the history and significance of personal archives in the context of the Black Experience in New York City.

- Open Newsroom: Preparing for Climate Change
  - Aug. 3, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about how climate change is impacting cities and learn about strategies for adaptation.

- Archiving and Story Sharing
  - Jul 25, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about oral history interviewing workshops led by a professional archivist from Queens Memory.

- Queens Memory Cookbook: Building Community Through Personal Archives
  - Jul 26-29, 2021
  - Location: American Folk Art Museum
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A project that explores the history and significance of personal archives in the context of the Black Experience in New York City.

- Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens
  - Jul 21 and 22, 2021
  - Location: Queens Public Library
  - Cost: Free; registration required
  - Description: A creative and intuitive walk around Queens led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe.

- Open Newsroom: Preparing for Climate Change
  - Aug. 3, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about how climate change is impacting cities and learn about strategies for adaptation.

- Archiving and Story Sharing
  - Jul 25, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about oral history interviewing workshops led by a professional archivist from Queens Memory.

- Queens Memory Cookbook: Building Community Through Personal Archives
  - Jul 26-29, 2021
  - Location: American Folk Art Museum
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A project that explores the history and significance of personal archives in the context of the Black Experience in New York City.

- Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens
  - Jul 21 and 22, 2021
  - Location: Queens Public Library
  - Cost: Free; registration required
  - Description: A creative and intuitive walk around Queens led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe.

- Open Newsroom: Preparing for Climate Change
  - Aug. 3, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about how climate change is impacting cities and learn about strategies for adaptation.

- Archiving and Story Sharing
  - Jul 25, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about oral history interviewing workshops led by a professional archivist from Queens Memory.

- Queens Memory Cookbook: Building Community Through Personal Archives
  - Jul 26-29, 2021
  - Location: American Folk Art Museum
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A project that explores the history and significance of personal archives in the context of the Black Experience in New York City.

- Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens
  - Jul 21 and 22, 2021
  - Location: Queens Public Library
  - Cost: Free; registration required
  - Description: A creative and intuitive walk around Queens led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe.

- Open Newsroom: Preparing for Climate Change
  - Aug. 3, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about how climate change is impacting cities and learn about strategies for adaptation.

- Archiving and Story Sharing
  - Jul 25, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about oral history interviewing workshops led by a professional archivist from Queens Memory.

- Queens Memory Cookbook: Building Community Through Personal Archives
  - Jul 26-29, 2021
  - Location: American Folk Art Museum
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A project that explores the history and significance of personal archives in the context of the Black Experience in New York City.

- Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens
  - Jul 21 and 22, 2021
  - Location: Queens Public Library
  - Cost: Free; registration required
  - Description: A creative and intuitive walk around Queens led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe.

- Open Newsroom: Preparing for Climate Change
  - Aug. 3, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about how climate change is impacting cities and learn about strategies for adaptation.

- Archiving and Story Sharing
  - Jul 25, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about oral history interviewing workshops led by a professional archivist from Queens Memory.

- Queens Memory Cookbook: Building Community Through Personal Archives
  - Jul 26-29, 2021
  - Location: American Folk Art Museum
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A project that explores the history and significance of personal archives in the context of the Black Experience in New York City.

- Melting Metropolis: How We Do Summer in Queens
  - Jul 21 and 22, 2021
  - Location: Queens Public Library
  - Cost: Free; registration required
  - Description: A creative and intuitive walk around Queens led by British visual artist Bryony Larcombe.

- Open Newsroom: Preparing for Climate Change
  - Aug. 3, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about how climate change is impacting cities and learn about strategies for adaptation.

- Archiving and Story Sharing
  - Jul 25, 2021
  - Location: Queens Central Library
  - Cost: Free; tickets required
  - Description: A conversation about oral history interviewing workshops led by a professional archivist from Queens Memory.